Books, Videos and DVDs

Found on the Alverno Library's homepage, <http://depts.alverno.edu/library/>, our online catalog TOPCAT provides access to many quality resources. You will find materials on different countries, globalization, world cultures, and more. To find information on specific cultures or countries, search TOPCAT using the name of the culture or county. Otherwise, consider using the following search terms:

- Cross cultural studies
- Ethnology
- Globalization
- Global Studies
- Multiculturalism
- World cultures
- World politics

Here is a sampling of books and their call numbers from Alverno's reference collection.

Tip: Don't forget about the convenient SWITCH delivery service. You can request materials quickly and easily from the eight libraries in the SWITCH consortium. The SWITCH collection is just a click away! Ask an Alverno librarian for details.

Databases and Journal Articles

Alverno subscribes to some great databases! From the Alverno Library's homepage, click "Databases by Subject" and select "General Databases", "Multicultural Studies", or "Sociology". Here are a few of our databases that offer access to quality information.

- Academic Search Premier
- African American Experience
- American Indian Experience
- Global Issues in Context
- Latino American Experience

Tip: Remember to use synonyms when searching for information on cultures. For example, these search terms all represent related ethnic groups: Hispanics, Hispanic Americans, Latinos, and Mexican Americans.

Websites

The Alverno Library provides access to a collection of librarian recommended web sites organized by subject. From the library's homepage, click "Best Web Sites" and select "Countries and Regions", "Global Studies & International Affairs", or "Government". Here is a partial listing:

Countries and Regions:

Background Notes

Produced by the U.S. Department of State, Background Notes are factual publications that contain information on the countries of the world with which the United States has relations. They include facts on the country's land, people, history, government, political conditions, economy, and more.
